

2009
CFO
AWARDS
Boston Business Journal

We are pleased to announce the honorees for the Boston Business Journal's first annual CFO of the Year Awards. Honorees were selected in six categories: publicly traded companies, large private companies (more than $50M in revenue), midsize private companies ($20M-$50M in revenue), small private companies (less than $20M in revenue), nonprofits and lifetime achievement.

Honorees will be recognized at a July 16 lunch event at the Boston Park Plaza Hotel. For more information visit:

<http://boston.bizjournals.com/boston/event/5083>

PLATINUM SPONSORS

GOLD SPONSORS

IN PARTNERSHIP WITH

BRONZE SPONSOR

Robert Half

The 2009 BBJ CFO of the Year honorees:

Lifetime Achievement Category

F. Gorham Brigham

Small Private Company Category

Ken Goldman / Black Duck Software

Roger Colvin / Bullhorn

Carol Gillen / Dyer Brown Associates Architects

Midsize Private Company Category

Gary Arena / Communispace Corp.

Joseph Burkett / Cafco Construction Management Inc.

Large Private Company Category

Joseph Gentile / Leerink Swann LLC

Scott Lerner / Consigli Construction Co. Inc.

Michael Provenzano / Aspect Software

Public Company Category

Juan Carlos Morales / The Bank of New York Mellon Corp.

Denis Sheahan / Independent Bank Corp.

Anne L. Randall / Boston Private Bank & Trust

Nonprofit Category

David Kirshner / Childrens Hospital Boston

Russell Kopp / Network Health

Jennifer Mendelsohn / Catholic Charities of Boston

Kevin Smith / Winchester Hospital

Thursday, July 16, 2009
11 a.m. - 2 p.m.
The Boston Park Plaza Hotel
50 Park Plaza, Boston, MA